Please confirm that you reside within the current boundary of Presteigne and Norton Town Council by ticking here.....

Please note that there are a limited number of plots available. The Council will try to accommodate all applicants within the space available, if it cannot do this then all applications will be entered into a formal ballot to determine an order of precedence for both the allocation of plots and the waiting list.

We anticipate there will be enough for 18 half plots (125 sq metres), or 36 quarter plots (62.5 sq. metres), or a combination. Charges are £25 per annum per quarter plot, £50 per annum per half plot.

To assist us trying to accommodate all applicants please answer the following questions.

1. If you would be willing to place yourself on a waiting list for plots that become vacant in the future please tick here.....

2. If you would be willing to share a plot please advise which size and the names of other applicants with whom you have agreed to share

Quarter Plot.....Half Plot.....

3. Would you prefer there to be only half plots and therefore a formal draw and fewer people accommodated please tick here.....or

4. Would you prefer there to be all quarter plots if a draw could then be avoided and everyone could be accommodated tick here .....

5. Would you prefer a quarter plot in any case tick here.....

Please return completed forms to :-
