...from Kings College/Zoë. The recent lockdown of Leicester has highlighted the need for earlier hotspot detection, particularly as lockdown measures are eased and life begins to return to 'normal'. It is thanks to your ongoing support and daily logging that we are now able to detect potential new COVID hotspots in the UK. With the COVID Symptom Study data now flagging up potential hotspots, it will allow for greater surveillance and more focussed testing that could detect new outbreaks much earlier. To do this successfully, we need more people to join us by using the app each day. Join the 4million already reporting every day. Please download the Kings College/Zoë C-19 Covid Symptom Study app (Apple & Google) now to report daily, and continue to spread the word about the app with friends, family, and your local community.

...from The Royal Oak. Meat Raffle !! Next Saturday morning 11th July we will hold a lockdown meat raffle with all proceeds going towards funding the Nigel Powell memorial bench for outside the pub. Adrian 'Fez' Pearce is kindly going to make us a bench befitting of Nigel to take pride of place outside The Oak. It's £1 a go with entry via bank transfer or just drop any monies through the door at the pub and a note with name and phone number on. We'll have prizes from joints of meat to steaks and burgers. Message us for any more information.

...from Debbie, Presteigne Carnival. Roll up, roll up! We have had some fantastic entries for the Presteigne Carnival Photography competition! Thank you to everyone who entered. Picking 3 winners was impossible...so we chose 4! Congratulations Elaine Millard, Kirsty Roberts, Alex Ramsay and Margaret Lloyd - see the winning entries on Presteigne Carnival Facebook page.

- Elaine's entry (2) is a photo of herself, circa 1962, dressed as Mary Queen of Scots, carrying her own head. Elaine won a prize for originality!
- Kirsty's photograph (10) is of herself and brother, Ian, around 1990. There is a story about Ian falling over in his pencil outfit and not being able to get back up - it may be worth asking him about it next time you're getting fuel
- Alex Ramsay's winning entry (12) is of Hugh Pope capturing the imagination of children with his creativity and enthusiasm.
- Margaret Lloyd's photograph (43) was taken around 1955. Brian Lloyd is on one of the horses, with Bert Price holding the horse. Sir Richard White is standing, with his son on a horse.

OTHER INFORMATION

...from Knighton & East Radnor Food Bank - we are once again welcoming callers to visit us at either Knighton Baptist Church (Norton Street) or Presteigne Baptist Church (Hereford Street). Since March, we have been offering a delivery only service but now we feel confident we can operate safely, with a few extra safety precautions in place. We are supplying masks for all our visitors and have reduced the numbers who can be in the food bank at one time, to keep us all safe. We will operate an appointment system but anyone who arrives at our door needing a food parcel urgently will be looked after. If necessary we will offer to deliver their food, in order to overcrowding and to keep social distance. Other Covid precautions are in place as well, eg using hand sanitiser, wearing gloves and wiping surfaces with disinfectant. However, we don't want people to be too fearful of calling in, so we will offer reassurance, kindness and use common sense!

Covid Project + Feminine Hygiene Supplies: We can help individuals and families affected by the Covid crisis and in addition, thanks to specific funding from the Welsh Government, /Powys County Council, we are offering adequate supplies of sanitary products to anyone who cannot keep up with the cost of buying these products. In addition, we will be providing packs of masks and hand sanitiser to our friends calling in, as they cannot afford to buy these. Now that lockdown is easing, we need to make sure that everyone can access a supply of basic PPE and not just those who can afford to buy them.

School's Out Project: If anyone you know or any family you are in contact with, is struggling to provide food during the summer break, please do get in touch with us at food bank. This is not limited to pupils receiving free school meals/vouchers. Knighton & East Radnor Food Bank 07731 524 058

...from The MidBorder News. We are gearing up for our August issue that will be all about local businesses and services. During the lockdown, people have increased their use of local providers: wouldn't it be great if they continued to do so now that restrictions are being lifted? We cover Kington, Knighton, Presteigne and surrounding areas and we'd love to see our local High Streets flourishing, so let's get the word out there and promote your business. See website <https://issuu.com/midbordernews> and Facebook for more information and ad prices – don't forget that each issue of the MidBorder News lasts for three months; people like to take it home and refer to it whenever they need a piece of local information. It's also available online, as a pdf (which is sent out to our mailing list) and on our Facebook page as well as the printed version being distributed to many venues in the three towns. The magazine is A4 format, so a quarter page ad is big and bold and only costs £30 per issue (there is a discount if you take an ad in more than one issue) and we can create a professional full-colour ad for you for only £15. So if your business is up and running again and you need to tell people about it, let us help you. The MidBorder News is a quarterly community news magazine run on a non-profit basis. We exist to support our community and the local economy. For charities and community groups and services we can give you free exposure, just get in touch. midbordernews@gmail.com
Autumn issue (August, September, October) - copy deadline 15th July. (Ed. I think the MidBorder News was formerly called the Kington Chronicle but now spreading its reach)
