THANK YOU!

... thank you, everyone in Presteigne & Norton, for your incredible support for Carnival - rain threatened all day but stayed away long enough for the Parade and first few hours until the heavens opened but we carried on and fortunately the weather then stayed relatively kind for the evening music - Kickback, DJ Stef and the Fabulous Bordellos - brilliant! Congratulations to all the competition, games, TOW and Parade winners, to our lovely Carnival Queen Daisy and her attendants Plamena, Olly, Freya and John, and to Glenys for opening this year's event. Carnival wouldn't happen without so much preparation, imagination and hard hard work by the Carnival committee led by the force of nature that is Debbie Davies, and the indefatigable Potts brothers, but we also owe special thanks to Trevor for compering, Matt for the electrics, Rory for all his events kit (tables and lighting), Tony & Andrew for the PA, to John, Ben and Roy for their beautiful old cars, to Colin and his lovely band of stewards for organising the road closures and safely marshalling the Parade through town and, finally but not least, to all the wonderful local volunteers who gave their time over the weekend to help with setting up, manning entrances, parking, stalls and games on the day, and clearing up afterwards. So many people to thank, we can't mention you all, but Carnival wouldn't (couldn't!!) happen without you. Carnival 2024 - bring it on! Saturday 13 July. Want to get involved in planning or volunteering for 2024? - email Debbie now on dbrhdvs6@aol.com.

SCAM WARNING (from WHICH and other sources)

...Fraudsters are targeting homebuyers with fake mortgages. Action Fraud has warned about a rise in mortgage scams at a time when rates are soaring. In the past two weeks alone, it has received 538 reports of fake emails from supposed mortgage lenders. The emails claim to offer low-rate mortgages on limited-time deals and include links to check your eligibility or get a personalised rate. However, these links lead to fraudulent websites designed to steal your banking information.

...Scammers impersonate your friends for gift cards. The latest wave of gift card scams involve fraudsters impersonating one of your email contacts and asking you to buy a gift card for them as a favour. This scam begins with a fraudster sending a bogus email posing as someone in your contacts list. They then request gift cards for retailers such as Amazon, claiming that they need help purchasing the cards for a sick family member. As the message appears to come from someone you know, you might think it's real and agree to buy - be careful, double-check any unusual requests, even if they appear to be genuine at first glance.

NEWS FROM THE HIGH STREET & LOCAL BUSINESSES / ORGANISATIONS

...Food Bank in Presteigne - change of day/time. We are now operating from Presteigne Youth Centre - the Old School, Hereford Street, on MONDAYS, between 10am and 11.30am. The foodbank is preparing for a significant increase in referrals to support parent and carers of school age children who during term receive free school meals and/ or breakfast. We can offer additional help by providing food parcels to parents of school age children during July and August, especially, but not exclusively, for those who normally receive free school meals. ...Judge's Lodging - excitement is mounting here for the start of our summer season this weekend, but not so much as the excitement of the return of our beloved Victorian pickle jars!!! They've been hiding behind the scenes, whilst we lovingly changed vinegar, sealed tops with wax and then created new flour-paste tops.....and whatever you're thinking about the contents of the big jar, we've heard it all before! (It's pickled marrows, stuffed with horseradish and spices, honestly). Sundays...a time for relaxing, yes? For all of July, August and September, we are also open on Sundays, so come on down and relax in the Judge's chair!

...Presteigne Festival - 24-28 August 2023. Presteigne Festival has just completed a project creating and performing songs with 75 children from 5 local schools, including Presteigne Primary. We'd like to thank all involved, especially the staff and teachers. Looking ahead to the end of August, this year's festival features the music of one of the most prophetic voices of the twentieth century, Czech composer Leoš Janáček. In the translation by Nobel prize-winner Seamus Heaney, Janáček's darkly atmospheric The Diary of one who disappeared takes centre stage on opening night. We're very excited to be welcoming Roxanna Panufnik as composer-in-residence, whose music was featured at the Coronation of King Charles III and who was recently described by The Observer as 'a gifted composer with a fast-growing reputation for heart, spunk and individuality ... distinctive in voice, serious, bold and appealing'. Alongside pieces by Bartók, Beethoven, Brahms, Britten, Debussy, Fauré, Poulenc, Rachmaninov and Tchaikovsky, our vital tradition of commissioning and premiering new music continues. New works from Panufnik, Michael Berkeley, Charlotte Bray, Edward Gregson, Thomas Hyde, Sarah Frances Jenkins, Claire Victoria Roberts, Adrian Williams and James B Wilson receive premieres. A world-class artist roster includes the Solem Quartet, Ivana Gavrić (piano), Rachel Roberts (viola), Mathilde Milwidsky (violin), Robert Plane (clarinet), Mark Wilde (tenor), Julien Van Mellaerts (baritone), Zoe Drummond (soprano), Alexei Watkins (horn), Chris Hopkins and Timothy End (piano), the Choir of King's College, London under Joseph Fort and the Festival Orchestra and Chamber Ensemble. We are delighted also to feature actor Christopher Good in our opening night concert. Radnorshire Wildlife Trust is partnering with us to lead two Bees, Bugs and Flowers walks. The first one sold out so quickly that we have just added a second event, also on Friday August 25th. Also included is poetry from Rhiannon Hooson, Christopher Reid on Seamus Heaney, Sioned Davies on The Mabinogion, Gavin Plumley on his book A Home for All Seasons, Barrie Gavin's film celebrating David Matthews' 80th birthday, three recent films from Ffilm Cymru, together with exhibitions and the popular Presteigne 'Open Studios' weekend, which celebrates the work of local artists and makers.
